Build Houston Magazine Focus Section: INSURANCE & BONDING FIRMS

October/November 2011

BUILD HOUSTON MAGAZINE will feature a special focus section on Construction Insurance and Bonding Firms in the upcoming October/November Issue. The focus section will consist of firm profiles which may include pictorials, agent bios, areas of expertise, or other information to educate construction professionals about your company and its services. Firm profiles are available in half page and full page increments.

Take advantage of Build Houston's expansive readership of over 14,000 decision makers in the local construction industry who seek your services. For additional advertising packages, non-member rates or to learn more about Build Houston Magazine, please contact Janice Peters at (713)523-6222. To reserve your advertising space, complete the form below and fax to Janice Peters at (713)874-0747.

"To be featured by such a distinguished organization in such a well-written magazine has added immeasurable credibility to what we do. Build Houston is more specifically targeted for the type of work that we do than other periodicals in the construction industry, and we have gotten a great deal of positive feedback from the General Contractor who was featured [in our ad] as well as other companies who read Build Houston and are interested in gaining the exposure it provides."

- Steve Jackson, CEO,
E3 Electric, Ltd

These rates are available only for the Insurance & Bonding Feature in Build Houston. All ad prices include 4-color process. Please complete the information below to reserve your advertisement in the October/November issue.
